

Environmental Policy

SINECO S.p.A. considers as an essential priority, among its activities, the protection and evaluation of the environment and it is focused in the constant improvement of its internal processes with the aim at protecting the environment and the safeguard of the public safety, pursuing the logic of keeping the balance between economical growth and environmental protection.

Therefore, Sineco SpA undertakes:

- To manage the industrial and commercial activities fully respecting the laws in force and accordingly to specific policies and regulations of our business

- To adopt principles, standards, solutions and technologies that are "Best Practice" for the preservation of the environment and public safety

- To pursue a constant and sustainable growth of its competence, efficiency and effectiveness in a healthy and safe workplace through the following actions and principles:

- Definition, knowledge and control of the company processes
 - Arranging resources, facilities and equipment suitable to the company processes
 - Training and up-dating workers accordingly with their job and promoting the exchange of experiences and knowledge
 - Adopting a sustainable approach to the optimization of the company performances with particular reference to environmental issues
 - Arranging procedures suited to promptly respond at environmental emergencies, including the control of the consequences
 - assuring the participation of the workers at the process of the protection of the environment
 - Undertaking and encouraging the involvement of the suppliers at the management of the environmental protection issues
 - Cooperating, when requested, with competent Authorities in the compilation of technical regulations concerning environmental matters
 - controlling regularly the correct application of the above mentioned principles
 - Revising constantly the above mentioned principles and assuring an efficient information to the parts involved, including suppliers

Sineco Management undertakes to discuss, approve and examine periodically the contents of this policy in accordance with the achievements of the prearranged aims.

The present policy, once approved, will be announced to every workers and, if necessary, to the public or any external party interested.

La Spezia, 22 April 2008

Sineco Management

MA File: ENVIROMENTAL POLICY .doc	EDIZIONE N. 1	APRILE 2008	Pagina 1 di 1
---	---------------	-------------	---------------

Formattati: Elenchi puntati e numerati